

opinion people* Football Allstar-Team

ODC Services GmbH did a presentable and quotable online study about the soccer world championship 2006 and asked their members of the opinion people panel in Germany, France, Italy Spain an the UK. By the question about the favourite player in each position we could compile a soccer-allstar-team. And these are our top-eleven in Europe: To keep the goal Europe wants to see G. Buffon (IT), our safest defence would be with A. Nesta (IT) and R. Ferdinand (UK) and at the midfield the opinion people user wants to see F. Cannavaro (IT), L. Thuram (FR), M. Ballack (DE), F. Lampard (UK), D. Beckham (UK) and last but not least F. Totti (IT). To make sure we will score enough goals they voted for T.Henry (FR) and W. Rooney (UK).
